

St. Vartan Camp 2007 Staff Stipend Schedule

Effective 2/09/07

POSITION (All positions require minimum age of 18, unless otherwise stated)	Duration Weekly Pay	TOTAL SALARY
Athletics Director: Minimum 21 years of age. In charge of plan and implementation of daily sports and games, including special sporting events, e.g. Olympics, as well as collaborating with Programming Director and supervising sports staff. Physical education background a must.	*Six weeks $150/week	$ 900.00
Aquatics Director: Minimum 21 years of age. Responsible for operation of pool, overseeing and implementing all pool activities and safety, assessing swimmer proficiency, and supervising lifeguards. Must possess current ARC WSI, Lifeguard Training, CPR for the Professional Rescuer, and First Aid Certifications. Qualifications are state regulated.	*Six weeks $150/week	$ 900.00
Lifeguard (3 positions): Supervision of campers engaged in pool activities; program helpers during non-pool time. Lifeguard Training, CPR for the Professional Rescuer, and First Aid Certifications. Qualifications are state regulated.	*Six weeks $140/week	$ 840.00
Head Counselor - Male: Minimum 21 years of age. In addition to general counselor responsibilities (see below), supervising male counseling staff in camper safety, appropriateness of supervision, and daily staff meetings.	*Six weeks $150/week	$ 900.00
Head Counselor - Female: Minimum 21 years of age. In addition to general counselor responsibilities (see below), supervising female counseling staff in camper safety, appropriateness of supervision, and daily staff meetings.	*Six weeks $150/week	$ 900.00
Male Counselor (4 positions): Responsible for supervision and punctuality of campers through daily activities, including rise and shine, bedtime, meals, program schedule, as well as for camper overall well-being; help foster group and individual development through positive reinforcement and affirmation.	*Six weeks $125/week	$ 750.00
Female Counselor (4 positions): Responsible for supervision and punctuality of campers through daily activities, including rise and shine, bedtime, meals, program schedule, as well as for camper overall well-being; help foster group and individual development through positive reinforcement and affirmation.	*Six weeks $125/week	$ 750.00
Armenian Language Instruction Director: In charge of plan and implementation of daily Armenian language instruction (beginner's and conversational level) in compliance with existing camp curriculum and designated camp theme. Oversee volunteer staff.	*Six weeks $150/week	$ 900.00
Arts & Crafts Director: In charge of planning and preparation, as well as implementation of daily Arts and crafts activities, in compliance with camp curriculum and designated camp theme; maintenance of Arts & Crafts classroom.	*Six weeks $150/week	$ 900.00
Religious Education and Heritage Studies Coordinator: In charge of plan, implementation and coordination of daily religion classes and daily heritage studies curriculum (dance, music, and history) in compliance with existing camp curriculum and theme. Responsible for coordination of daily religion and heritage instructors and instruction when instructors are not present.	*Six weeks $125/week	$ 750.00
Nighttime Security: Minimum 25 years of age. Between the hours of midnight and 7 am, responsible for patrol of grounds, ensuring camper safety, and enforcing campwide curfews.	*Six weeks $150/week	$ 900.00

Note: *The six week pay period does not include mandatory participation at the on-site pre-camp staff training session, commencing on Wednesday, June 20 and concluding on June 24 when campers arrive, as well as on-site post-camp evaluation, ending on Saturday, August 4, 2007. A $50 stipend will be received in addition to six week salary for staff training. All staff must undergo this pre-camp training, regardless of the number of weeks on staff.

Those who stay on staff four or more weeks will receive the following bonuses: $50 for four weeks; $75 for five weeks; or $100 for six weeks.

Detailed job descriptions available for each position. Contact Camp Office Coordinator at lydiak@armeniandiocese.org for more information and to request an application.

Staff applications are due April 2, 2007 so you can be notified by April 16, 2007